3. Section 7 of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting immediately after the words "category of producers" in the proviso to subsection (1) thereof the words "or any category of produce". Section 7 of principal Act amended

4. The principal Act is hereby amended by inserting immediately after section 7 thereof the following new section to be numbered 7A:— New section inserted in principal Act

"Minister may make compulsory marketing order

7A.—(1) Without prejudice to the provisions of subsection (1) of section 7, the Minister may, if he is of opinion that circumstances urgently require that the marketing of any specified agricultural product used for human consumption should be controlled, by order published in the Gazette, order that all producers of that product within an area for which a Board has been established, or any part or parts thereof, shall comply with any directions of the Board as to the sale of such product:

Provided that the Minister may, in any such order, exempt any producer or category of producers or any category of produce from the order.

- (2) Where an order has been made under subsection (1)—
- (a) the provisions of subsections (3) and (4) of section 7 and of section 8 shall apply to and in respect of the order as if it were an order made under subsection (1) of section 7 by the Board referred to in the order;
 - (b) the provisions of section 9 shall not apply in respect of the order nor in respect of any directions given pursuant to the order under subsection (3) of section 7.
- (3) Where an order has been made under subsection (1), the Minister may by the same or by another order—
- (a) empower the Board referred to in the order made under subsection (1) to exercise all or any of the powers contained in paragraph (a) and paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of section 10;
 - (b) exercise the power conferred upon him by paragraph (b) of that subsection, and where the Minister so empowers a Board to exercise or himself exercises any of such powers, the provisions of subsections (2), (3), (4) and (5) of section 10 shall apply as if the Board had been empowered to exercise or the Minister had exercised such powers under the provisions of that section.

(4) For the avoidance of doubt, it shall not be necessary for any order made under this section to be approved by the National Assembly nor need any prior notice of the making thereof be given.”.
