

TANGANYIKA

No. 71 OF 1962

I ASSENT,

Governor-General

27TH NOVEMBER, 1962

An Act to establish the Tanganyika Red Cross Society and for matters connected therewith

[7TH DECEMBER, 1962]

ENACTED by the Parliament of Tanganyika.

1. This Act may be cited as the Tanganyika Red Cross Society Act, 1962.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires-
"the Society" means the Tanganyika Red Cross Society established by section 3.

3. There is hereby established a body corporate by the name of the Tanganyika Red Cross Society with perpetual succession and a common seal which shall in its corporate name be capable of suing and being sued and which shall have the power of holding, purchasing and otherwise acquiring, and of disposing of, property both moveable and immovable.

4.-(1) The purposes of the Society shall be-

- (a) in time of war, to furnish aid to the sick and wounded both of armies and among non-belligerents, and to prisoners of war and civilian sufferers from the effects of war;
- (b) in time of peace or war, to carry on and assist in work for the improvement of health, the prevention of disease and the mitigation of suffering throughout the world;
- (c) to do all things necessary, advantageous or convenient to or in connection with the better carrying out of the purposes aforesaid.

(2) In carrying out the purposes for which it is established the Society shall make no distinction between persons which is based on any ground relating to race, nationality, sex, religion or political opinion.

5.-(1) The governing body of the Society shall be an Executive Committee consisting of not more than thirty members of the Society appointed or elected in such manner as may from time to time be determined by the Executive Committee.

(2) The Executive Committee may provide for the organization of such divisions and branches of the Society in Tanganyika as may seem to it expedient for the more effectual carrying out of the purposes of the Society.

Power to make rules

6.--(1) The Executive Committee may make such rules as appear to it to be necessary or expedient for the government and conduct of the Society and in particular, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, may make rules providing for-

- (a) the organization and functions of branches and divisions of the Society;
- (b) the appointment and duties of officers of the Society;
- (c) the custody of the property of the Society and the keeping and auditing of accounts;
- (d) the use of the Red Cross emblem and badge by officers and members of the Society;
- (e) the qualifications and functions of the members of the Society and their organization into groups.

Cap. 1

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 7 of the Interpretation and General Clauses Ordinance, it shall not be necessary for rules made under this section to be published in the Gazette.

(3) The provisions of paragraph (b) of section 25 of the Interpretation and General Clauses Ordinance shall not apply in respect of rules made under this section.

Offences

7. Any person who, falsely and with intent to deceive or defraud-

- (a) holds himself out to be a member of or an agent for the Society for the purpose of soliciting, collecting or receiving money or other property; or
- (b) wears or displays the emblem of the Red Cross or any colourable imitation thereof for the purpose of inducing the belief that he is a member of or an agent for the Society or that he has been recognized by the Society as possessing any qualification for administering first-aid or other treatment for injury or sickness, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Transitional provisions

8.--(1) Upon the date of coming into operation of this Act the former Branch shall be dissolved and-

- (a) all assets and liabilities of the former Branch shall be transferred to and vest in the Society without further assurance and the Society shall have all powers necessary to take possession of, recover and deal with such assets and discharge such liabilities;
- (b) every agreement, whether in writing or not, and every deed, bond or other instrument to which the former Branch was a party or which affected the former Branch, and whether or not of such a nature that the rights, liabilities and obligations thereunder could be assigned, shall have effect as if the Society were a party thereto or affected thereby instead of the former

Branch and as if for every reference (however worded and whether express or implied) therein to the former Branch there were substituted in respect of anything to be done on or after such date of coming into operation a reference to the Society;

- (c) any proceedings pending immediately before such date of coming into operation to which the former Branch was a party shall be continued as if the Society was a party thereto in lieu of the former Branch;
- (d) the Executive Committee of the former Branch shall become the Executive Committee of the Society and shall continue as such until further provision in that behalf is made under section 5;
- (e) all officers of the former Branch shall become the corresponding officers of the Society and, subject to the provisions of any rules made under section 6, shall continue in office for the period for which they were appointed or elected as officers of the former Branch.

(2) In this section "the former Branch" means the Tanganyika Branch of the British Red Cross, Society.
