

THE UNITED REPUBLIC OF TANZANIA

No. 52 OF 1965

I ASSENT,

President

30TH DECEMBER, 1965

An Act to amend the Provident Fund (Government Employees) Ordinance

[1ST JANUARY, 1966]

ENACTED by the Parliament of the United Republic of Tanzania.

1. This Act may be cited as the Provident Fund (Government Employees) Ordinance (Amendment) Act, 1965, shall be read as one with the Provident Fund (Government Employees) Ordinance and shall come into operation on the first day of January, 1966.

Short title, construction and commencement
Cap. 51

2. Section 2 of the Provident Fund (Government Employees) Ordinance is hereby amended by adding, immediately above the definition "deposit", the following new definition:—

Appointment
defined

“ ‘to appoint’ and ‘appointment’ in relation to appointment as an employee of the Government, include to re-appoint or re-employ and re-appointment or re-employment;”.

3. Section 4 of the Provident Fund (Government Employees) Ordinance is hereby amended as follows:—

Members of Subordinate Service to become depositors as from the date of appointment

(a) by deleting paragraph (b) of subsection (1) and by substituting therefor the following new paragraphs:—

“(b) Every non-pensionable employee who is appointed a member of the Subordinate Service of the Government on or after the first day of January, 1966 shall become a depositor from the date of his appointment.

(c) Every non-pensionable employee who was appointed a member of the Subordinate Service of the Government on or after the first day of January, 1965 but before the first day of January, 1966 shall become a depositor from the first day of January, 1966:

Provided that where, within two months of the date of his becoming a depositor, any such employee notifies the Principal Secretary to the Treasury in writing of his desire to be accepted as a depositor from the date of his appointment and pays to the Principal Secretary to the Treasury a sum equal to the aggregate of the deposits which he would have made had he become a depositor from the date of his appointment, he shall be deemed to have become a depositor from the date of his appointment.”; and

(b) by deleting subsections (3) and (4).

Saving

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 3 every non-pensionable employee who, before the commencement of this Act—

(a) was a depositor; or

(b) had a right to elect to become a depositor, shall continue to be a depositor or have a right to elect to become a depositor, as the case may be, as if this Act had not been enacted.

Passed in the National Assembly on the twenty-third day of December, 1965.
